

Bible Study for Beginners - Printable Worksheets

From Bible Study for Beginners by Martha Ellison (Oro Enigma Publishing). Print as many copies as you need, for yourself or a group.

Worksheet 1 - The SOAP page

Date and passage
S - Scripture: the verse or sentence, copied out
O - Observation: what it says (who, what, where, what stood out, what I did not understand)
A - Application: one specific thing, today
P - Prayer: two or three lines from the passage

Worksheet 2 - The inductive study

Step	Notes
Passage, translation, date
Observe: Who? What? When and where? Why?
Repeated words
Connecting words (therefore, but, so that, because, if...then)
Commands, promises, comparisons, lists, questions
What I did not understand (questions for step 2)
Interpret: the main point in one sentence
What it meant to the first readers
Key words and what they mean
Cross-references and what they add
What two commentaries say

Apply: what this shows about God
What this shows about people
A command, promise, example, sin, or truth
One specific thing I will do, and when

Worksheet 3 - The book overview

Book; date read straight through
Author, date, first readers, occasion (Part 3; study Bible)
My outline: sections and titles
The themes (repeated words and ideas, with references)
The key verse or passage
The book's message in one sentence
The book's message in one paragraph
Passages to study with Worksheet 2
What I noticed on the second reading

Worksheet 4 - The word study and verse map

Word; verse where I met it

Original word and Strong's number
Range of meaning (lexicon)
Other uses (a dozen, in context) and how they are translated
What the word means in this passage
Verse map: the verse in two or three translations
Key words boxed: original, meaning, one cross-reference each
What comes before and after
The verse in my own words
One application

Worksheet 5 - The character study

Person; the passages (in order)
Timeline: background, calling, main events, crisis, end
Family, work, place, the people around them
Their own words (the best evidence)
Strengths
Weaknesses and failures
Turning points; how they responded to failure and to God
What God did with and through them; what the text says God thought
The New Testament's use of them
What this life shows about God, about people, and for me

Worksheet 6 - The topical study

Topic, defined narrowly
The words the Bible uses for it (including the old ones)
The main passages (concordance, topical Bible, cross-references)
Discarded (used the word but not the subject)
What the Old Testament says
What Jesus says
What the letters say
The tension: the verse that pushes back
Summary paragraph, with references
One application

Worksheet 7 - The prayer journal page

Date	Passage	The word or phrase that caught me	My prayer	Answered / revisited

Worksheet 8 - The group leader's page, and the plan checklist

Meeting preparation
Passage; date; who is reading aloud
My own inductive study done (Worksheet 2)
Observation question ("What did you notice?")
Five or six open questions,

observation to meaning to application
The one hard question I may be asked, and where I will look
The application question
Who has been quiet lately, to ask by name
Prayer needs from last week to follow up

The 12-week plan checklist. Tick each reading (Chapter 13).

Week	D1	D2	D3	D4	D5	SOAP done	Weekend study
1 Mark	()	()	()	()	()
2 Mark	()	()	()	()	()
3 Genesis	()	()	()	()	()
4 Genesis	()	()	()	()	()
5 Exodus	()	()	()	()	()
6 John	()	()	()	()	()
7 John	()	()	()	()	()

8 Acts	()	()	()	()	()
9 Philippians, Ephesians	()	()	()	()	()
10 Romans, James	()	()	()	()	()
11 Ruth, Samuel	()	()	()	()	()
12 Isaiah, Luke	()	()	()	()	()

