

Travel for Seniors Over 60 - Printable Checklists

From Travel for Seniors Over 60 by Judith Carrow (Oro Enigma Publishing). Print as many copies as you need.

Twelve weeks before

- ☐ Passport valid for six months beyond the return date, with blank pages; renewed if not
- ☐ Visa or electronic travel authorisation applied for (ESTA, ETA, and the rest)
- ☐ The honest questions answered and the kind of trip chosen (Chapter 2)
- ☐ The trip priced in full, plus a fifth (Chapter 3)
- ☐ Insurance quotes with every condition declared; bought with the deposit (Chapter 4)
- ☐ Deposit paid by credit card; cancellation terms read
- ☐ Airline assistance requested with the booking; seats chosen
- ☐ Accessible or ground-floor room requested by email and confirmed
- ☐ Doctor's appointment booked for six to eight weeks before (Chapter 5)
- ☐ Vaccinations checked for the destination; courses started
- ☐ Medicines checked as legal in the destination (embassy website)

Four weeks before

- ☐ Doctor seen: fit to travel, vaccinations, the letter, the time-zone plan, the rescue pack
- ☐ Repeat prescriptions ordered for the trip plus a week (plus a month for a long stay)
- ☐ Oxygen or mobility equipment arranged with the airline or the ship
- ☐ Cards: two, from two banks; the banks told the dates and countries; a no-fee card if possible
- ☐ Local currency ordered, a small amount
- ☐ International driving permit, if driving; hire car booked with automatic gears and excess cover
- ☐ Train assistance or coach access confirmed
- ☐ House: insurer told if away over thirty days; post; the neighbour; the pet
- ☐ Phone: roaming or a local SIM decided; the map of the destination downloaded; the medical information on the lock screen
- ☐ The trip registered with the foreign office travel service

One week before

- ☐ Documents photographed and emailed to yourself and to someone at home: passport, insurance, tickets, the letter, the medicines list
- ☐ The phone card (below) filled in and printed, one for the wallet and one for home
- ☐ The case packed two days before, from the list; the hand luggage from its list
- ☐ Flight socks bought and tried; the shoes worn in
- ☐ Insulin cool bag, the pump supplies, the spare batteries
- ☐ The itinerary and the hotel details left with someone at home
- ☐ The taxi or the parking booked for the airport or the station
- ☐ Assistance confirmed with the airline the day before

The day

- ☐ Medicines and documents in the hand luggage; a day's medicines in the pocket
- ☐ Glasses, hearing aids and batteries, charger and power bank
- ☐ Cash, cards, the phone card
- ☐ The house: windows, taps, heating, the key with the neighbour
- ☐ Water bought after security; the socks on before boarding
- ☐ The stick or the chair declared; the assistance desk found

The medicines list (to carry, and to photograph)

Medicine (generic name)	Brand	Dose and when	What it is for	Prescribed by Allergies:
Devices (pacemaker, pump, oxygen):

The packing list

Hand luggage	The case
Passport and copy; tickets; insurance card	Clothes for a week, in colours that go together; one warm layer; one smart
Medicines, list, letter; a day's supply in the pocket	Second pair of shoes, worn in; sandals
Glasses and spare; hearing aids and batteries	Toiletries in travel sizes; sun cream; insect repellent
Phone, charger, power bank, adapter	The kit: painkiller, rehydration sachets, anti-diarrhoeal, antihistamine, plasters, antiseptic, thermometer
Cash, two cards, the phone card	Nightwear; underwear for a week; swimwear
Cardigan; neck pillow; eye mask; flight socks	Hat; sunglasses; small umbrella or a light raincoat
Water (after security); a snack; a pen; a book	A small day bag; a laundry bag; a folding stick
Change of underwear; the keys	The week's extra medicines; the chargers for the devices

The phone card (one for the wallet, one for home)

My name, date of birth, nationality
Passport number
Insurance company, policy number, 24-hour number
Conditions and medicines (see list); allergies
Doctor at home: name and number
Next of kin: name and number
Hotel: name, address, number
Embassy or consulate: address, number
Local emergency number (112 / 911 / 000 / 111 / 999)
Airline and booking reference; the assistance desk
Travel company or tour guide: number
Blood group, if known; organ donor, if wished	