

Weekly Shopping Lists

Each list covers every recipe cooked that week for two people, including the batches that feed the following days. Cross off what is already in the cupboard. Every week, as well: a bag of unsalted mixed nuts for the daily handful (about 200 g), fruit for the daily pieces (a dozen), fat-free yogurt, and the plant-sterol spread if you use one. Amounts are rounded up to what you can actually buy; the leftover half of a can or a pepper goes into the next day's salad or soup.

The Seven Habits Card

Cut out and keep on the fridge.

1. Olive oil is the fat. On bread, in the pan, on salad and vegetables: three to four tablespoons a day. Butter, cream and hard fats rarely.
2. Vegetables at lunch and at dinner; fruit for dessert. Two portions at each meal; greens with oil and lemon most days.
3. Beans, lentils or chickpeas most days. Half a can is a portion.
4. Wholegrains, not white. Wholemeal bread, oats, barley, bulgur, brown rice, wholewheat pasta.
5. Fish twice a week, one of them oily. Canned counts.
6. Meat is the small part of the plate. Poultry once or twice a week; red meat once, small; processed meat rarely.
7. A handful of unsalted nuts a day; herbs, garlic and lemon instead of salt; water as the drink; sit down and eat with someone.

After 60: 25 to 30 g of protein at each main meal; under 6 g of salt a day; a glass of water with every meal and snack; a walk after the main meal.
