Worksheet 9 - The Credit Checklist (at eighteen)

	Done
A parent has frozen my credit file at Equifax, Experian and TransUnion (free)	☐
I am an authorised user on a parent's card with a good history (if they agree)	☐
At 18: one secured or student card, small limit, one recurring bill on it, autopay in full	☐
I have looked at my three credit reports at annualcreditreport.com and found only my own accounts	☐
I know my score and the three things that move it (pay on time; use under 30% of the limit; keep the oldest account open)	☐
I have never co-signed for anyone and never opened a store card at a checkout	☐
I have two-factor authentication on the bank, the email and the phone account, and a password manager	☐

Worksheet 10 - The Scam Checklist

(before I send anyone money)

Question	Yes = stop
Did they contact me first (text, message, call, email, DM)?	☐
Do they want me to act now, today, before I talk to anyone?	☐
Do they want gift cards, crypto, Zelle, a wire or a cash app "friends and family" payment?	☐
Have they sent me money and asked for some back?	☐
Have they asked for a code, a password, a PIN or a card number?	☐
Is it a job that costs money, a prize that needs a fee, or a return that is guaranteed?	☐
Have I met them, in person, and could a parent name them?	☐ (no = stop)
Would I be embarrassed to tell a parent about this?	☐

Any tick: do not send, tell a parent, and report it
(reportfraud.ftc.gov; Action Fraud in the UK).
